1. I had a long telephone conversation with [REDACTED] who seemed quite unhappy that [REDACTED] had referred the Deputy Director (Plans)'s paper on early retirement to the Career Council. I told him that I had recommended this and that I thought this was the proper forum for this matter to be considered. Dan was afraid that it would get bogged down and nothing would ever come of it. I assured him that next week when I had finished working on the budget I would see that this moved along and got thorough consideration without delay.

4. Larry Houston telephoned to say that he had been advised by the White House that Mr. McCone should be resworn now that he had been confirmed. I passed this on to [REDACTED] and told him that this could be done by the Director of Personnel or any Notary Public and asked him to arrange to have this done.

5. [REDACTED] telephoned to tell me that [REDACTED] would be return- 25X1A9a ing to Washington, D.C., in April and that he saw no other vacancy in the Clandestine Service for him for another year or so. Although he alluded to some vague plans that Dick Bissell had for using Ted, this was to put me on notice that since he was a member of my Career Service I would be expected to take care of him. Apparently, the prior understanding that he would go to [REDACTED] has fallen through, and this now will pose a considerable assignment problem.

6. John Tietjen called to say that [REDACTED] had been seen by Dr. 25X1A9a Harvey, an outstanding cardiologist, and that [REDACTED] should not increase his 25X1A9a working hours at the present time. Although John has not said so, I am beginning to feel that [REDACTED] will never be able to give us full time again.
